- 2:00PM Rally to end US occupation of Iraq FOLLOWED BY A MARCH

CREATIVE RESISTANCE IS REQUIRED!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

It has been over 100 days - there is no end in sight.
End the occupation - the war is not over

We will be there with our instruments of musical merriment, our rage at injustice, and our joy of collective resistance. The rest is up to you. This movement must continue to incorporate more and more creative elements into our actions. The decision of how to resist is up to you! No steering committees and no leaders. Form a contingent and bring what you've got. Flags, bubbles, kites, bikes, tricycles, masks, goggles, poems, literature, and more is requested at this gathering. Take back what the system has stolen from you- the freedom to be who you are and the freedom to shape the society you're a part of.
